10 moving jobs everyone forgets

Tick them off as you go. Most take five minutes, and missing them can cost you money.

- [ ] 01 Redirect your post — royalmail.com/redirection
  The most forgotten moving job of all. Book it before moving day.
- [ ] 02 Update your online shopping accounts — Your accounts
  Saved delivery addresses and cards. 1 in 5 movers forget this.
- [ ] 03 Book broadband early — Your provider
  New connections can take weeks. Book as soon as you have a date.
- [ ] 04 Tell DVLA (licence and log book) — gov.uk/change-address-driving-licence
  Free on GOV.UK. Not telling them can mean a fine of up to £1,000.
- [ ] 05 Take meter readings at both homes — Your energy supplier
  On moving day. Photograph every meter so you are only billed fairly.
- [ ] 06 Register to vote at your new address — gov.uk/register-to-vote
  Lenders use the electoral register for credit checks.
- [ ] 07 Tell both councils about council tax — gov.uk/council-tax
  Your old council and your new one, so you are not billed twice.
- [ ] 08 Move your TV Licence — tvlicensing.co.uk
  It does not move by itself. Update your address online.
- [ ] 09 Tell HMRC — gov.uk/tell-hmrc-change-address
  Keeps tax, Child Benefit and State Pension letters coming to you.
- [ ] 10 Update your insurance — Your insurers
  Home and car. An out-of-date address can invalidate your policy.

Never miss a UK admin deadline

Admonday is a free Monday email: the 5 things UK households need to know each week, with official links.
